

The Bowen Group, a Service-Disabled Veteran Owned small business and leader in Human Capital Development, Management Consulting, and Training & Learning Solutions, is searching for Personal Financial Counselors. Positions based nationwide and are contingent on contract award.

Key Responsibilities: The Personal Financial Counselors will provide counseling and financial readiness services to military service members.

Qualifications: Candidates must possess a minimum of a bachelor's degree and a financial education background and national certification as an Accredited Financial Counselor (AFC).

To submit resume, send via email to careers@bowenconsulting.com.